26 Real Parties in Interest.

27 ORDER

1 WHEREAS, this matter came on for consideration by the Court upon 2 petition for writ of superintending control, response of the real parties in interest, 3 amici curiae briefs, petitioners’ reply and notice of supplemental authority, and the 4 oral argument of the parties on August 4, 2020;

5 WHEREAS, petitioners seek a writ of superintending control from this 6 Court to resolve the following two issues: “(1) whether the State may issue civil 7 administrative penalties under the Public Health Emergency Response Act for 8 violations of restrictions on mass gatherings and business operations contained in 9 emergency public health orders; and (2) whether temporary business closures and 10 restrictions as a public health measure constitute a ‘taking’ requiring monetary 11 payments to business owners;” and

12 WHEREAS, the Court having considered the foregoing and being 13 sufficiently advised, Chief Justice Michael E. Vigil, Justice Barbara J. Vigil, 14 Justice Judith K. Nakamura, Justice C. Shannon Bacon, and Justice David K.
15 Thomson concurring;

16 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the petition is GRANTED as to 17 Issue 1 and a writ shall issue directing the district court to resolve counts 1 and 2 of 18 the complaint in cause numbered D-905-CV-2020-00233 in accordance with this 19 Court’s conclusion that the New Mexico Legislature has clearly given the

1 Governor of New Mexico authority to issue civil administrative penalties under the 2 Public Health Emergency Response Act for violations of restrictions on mass 3 gatherings and business operations contained in emergency public health orders;

4 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Court declines to issue a writ with 5 respect to Issue 2 in the petition;

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the stay previously issued by this Court is 7 LIFTED; and

8 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Court shall issue an opinion at a later 9 date to further explain its ruling in this case.

10 IT IS SO ORDERED.

WITNESS, the Honorable Michael E. Vigil, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New Mexico, and the seal of said Court this 4th day of August, 2020.
