

SUPREME COURT OF NEW MEXICO
STATE LAW LIBRARIAN

Come work with us in the historic Supreme Court Building in Santa Fe!

The Supreme Court is accepting applications for State Law Librarian. The State Law Librarian, under the administrative direction of the Chief Justice and Justices of the Supreme Court, manages statewide law library operations and the work of the Supreme Court Law Library; sets policies and standards for access to legal information and the management of records; oversees contract negotiation, maintenance agreements, contractual services, and hardware purchases; and supervises a professional law librarian staff.

For a detailed description of the job qualifications, duties, and application requirements, please visit the Careers webpage on the New Mexico Judiciary's website at <https://nmcourts.gov/jobs.aspx>.